

American Kestrel

Falcón Común

Falco sparverius

BIRD FACT

It is the smallest falcon in the Americas and can hover almost motionless into the wind.

LOOK FOR

Small falcon with a rusty back, blue-gray crown, and two black marks on each cheek.

HABITAT

A wire beside an open field with scattered palms.